

Christine G. Hall-Schweiss

Associate

chall@lewisrice.com

St. Louis, MO / (314) 444-1315

Christine Hall-Schweiss advises clients on a broad range of corporate matters, drawing on a unique background in social work to deliver thoughtful, solutions-oriented counsel.

Christine is an associate practicing general business law in the Corporate Department of Lewis Rice, where she focuses on various corporate matters. Prior to attending law school, she spent five years as a social worker, where she developed essential skills in communication, negotiation, and conflict resolution. This experience gives her a deep understanding of human behavior and enables her to approach legal challenges comprehensively, always prioritizing her clients' needs and concerns. Christine is a trusted advisor for clients seeking business success with a strong commitment to integrity.

Education

- Saint Louis University School of Law (J.D., magna cum laude, 2024)
 - Senior Staff Editor and Staff Member, Saint Louis University Law Journal
 - Teaching Assistant, Legal Research and Writing
 - Order of the Woolsack; 1843 Scholar
 - Academic Excellence Awards, Contracts II; Torts; Legal Research and Writing; Wills & Trusts
- Harding University (B.S.W., cum laude, 2016)
 - Dean's List (2014-2016)
 - Service Director, Pi Theta Phi
 - Roosevelt Committee
 - Poverty Coalition

Legal Background

- Legal Extern, Anheuser-Busch Companies, LLC (2023)
- Summer Associate, Lewis Rice LLC (2022-2023)

Services

- Corporate Strategies

Admissions

- Missouri Bar

Charitable & Civic Involvement

- Young Professional Board Member, Epworth Children & Family Services (2022-present)

Publications

April 27, 2026

Oklahoma and Alabama Get the Ball Rolling Again, Enact Comprehensive Privacy Laws

March 4, 2026

AI Transcription Tools Give Rise to BIPA Claims

February 17, 2025

Missouri Court of Appeals Upholds Strict Standard for Proving Reputational Harm in Defamation Cases