

Kayla Ksiazkiewicz

Paralegal

kksiazkiewicz@lewisrice.com

St. Louis, MO / (314) 444-7650

Kayla Ksiazkiewicz is an asbestos paralegal in the Firm's Litigation Department. She has experience working in both Missouri and Pennsylvania law firms, where she assisted on matters involving insurance defense, employment disputes, personal injury, and other civil litigation. Kayla is an expert in managing large volumes of case materials, organizing medical and estate-related records, preparing subpoenas and discovery responses, and keeping matters moving efficiently through fast-paced litigation timelines.

She is skilled in e-filing, coordinating extensive document requests, and preparing clear, well-organized summaries for attorney use. Known for her strong organization, reliability, and attention to detail, Kayla is a trusted and valuable member of the firm's litigation team.

Education

- Kutztown University (B.A., 2016)
- Lehigh Carbon Community College (Paralegal Certificate)

Legal Background

- Legal Assistant / Paralegal, Roberts Perryman, P.C. (2024–2026)
- Case Manager, The Crone Law Firm, PLC (2023–2024)
- Paralegal, Brinker and Doyen, LLP (2023)
- Case Manager, Simon & Simon (2021–2023)
- Paralegal, Fellerman & Ciarimboli Law, P.C. (2018–2020)
- Legal Assistant, Law Office of Eugene D. Sperazza (2016–2018)