

Maleah A. Fallahi

Associate

mfallahi@lewisrice.com

St. Louis, MO / (314) 444-1336

Maleah practices in the Litigation Department of Lewis Rice. She represents individuals and companies in a broad range of disputes, including matters involving immigration, intellectual property, and labor and employment.

During law school, Maleah spent two summers with Lewis Rice as a summer associate. She also served as Lead Editor of the Saint Louis University Law Journal, completed an externship with Anheuser-Busch, and was a member of the Civil Advocacy Clinic. In addition, Maleah serves as Co-President for Billikens of the Last Decade (BOLD), the Saint Louis University Young Alumni Board.

Education

- Saint Louis University School of Law (J.D., 2025)
 - Lead Editor, Saint Louis University Law Journal
 - Member, Civil Advocacy Clinic
 - Order of the Woolsack Honors Society
- Saint Louis University (B.A., 2020)
 - Political Science
 - American Studies

Legal Background

- Summer associate, Lewis Rice LLC (2023-2024)

Professional Affiliations

- Co-President, Billikens of the Last Decade (BOLD)

Admissions

- Missouri Bar

Services

- Immigration
- Intellectual Property
- Advertising, Promotions & Social Media
- Labor & Employment
- Education
- Municipal Law, Zoning & Finance
- Health Care Litigation