Mike Crawford guides clients through commercial lending, business transactions, and corporate structuring with clarity and precision.

Mike is a corporate attorney whose practice focuses on commercial lending, general business transactions, and corporate law. He assists financial institutions and other businesses with a wide range of financing transactions, including working capital and asset-based loans, real estate and construction loans, acquisition financings, senior secured and mezzanine loans, as well as loan restructurings and workouts.

Mike also works closely with clients on corporate mergers and acquisitions. His role includes preparing and negotiating key deal documents—such as purchase agreements, disclosure schedules, and ancillary agreements—conducting initial due diligence reviews, and facilitating communication between parties throughout the transaction process.

In addition, Mike advises clients on entity formation and structuring, corporate governance, corporate planning, and general business representation, helping businesses navigate foundational and ongoing legal needs.
