Rob Golterman is a respected litigator and advisor with deep experience in labor and employment, construction, and municipal law.

Rob practices in several areas, including labor and employment law, construction law, commercial litigation, ERISA litigation, and municipal law.

Rob regularly counsels employers and management on personnel-related matters, including discrimination lawsuits, collective bargaining, grievance proceedings, and cases before the National Labor Relations Board. His labor work spans numerous organizations throughout Missouri and Illinois, including electrical workers, operating engineers, teamsters, and laborers. This experience naturally complements his construction law practice, where he represents owners, contractors, and subcontractors in a variety of construction-related disputes.

Rob has authored several articles and publications in the field of employment and labor law. He is AV® Preeminent™ Peer Review Rated by Martindale-Hubbell and has been selected by his peers for inclusion in Best Lawyers® (2013–2026). He was also named to the St. Louis Business Journal's "40 Under 40" list.

Beyond his legal practice, Rob is active in the community. He is a former President of Sunset Country Club and a founding board member of Our Little Haven, a charitable organization supporting children affected by HIV/AIDS and substance dependency. He also serves on the Board of Directors of the St. Louis Sports Commission.

At Lewis Rice, Rob is a former member of the Firm's Management and Recruiting Committees.
