St. Louis, MO / (314) 444-7822

Sarah Milunski is a seasoned trial attorney representing clients in complex litigation across a wide range of industries and legal issues.

Sarah serves as Practice Group Leader for the Medical Negligence practice group. She is a seasoned litigator who handles cases involving Missouri's Franchise Act, consumer protection statutes, contract and property disputes, municipal litigation, and personal injury in both federal and state courts in Missouri and Illinois. Her experience spans the medical laboratory, bicycle manufacturing, and public utility industries, including matters involving personal injury, patent infringement, and contract disputes.

Sarah regularly develops case strategies and legal arguments that are relied upon at trial in some of the Firm's most complex matters. Her recent trials have involved breach of contract and municipal law, both of which resulted in favorable outcomes for her clients. She is known for her thorough approach to each case, taking time to understand both the legal issues and the business context in which her clients operate. Whether in the courtroom or advising in the office, Sarah focuses on delivering sound guidance and achieving meaningful results.

She was selected for inclusion in Missouri & Kansas Rising Stars® from 2018 to 2022 and in Best Lawyers® Ones to Watch from 2021 to 2025.

During law school, Sarah served as the Childress Lecture managing editor of the Saint Louis University Law Journal.

Outside the office, Sarah sings with the St. Louis Chamber Chorus and at her parish, St. Margaret of Scotland.
