

Timothy D. Yeaglin

Co-chair of the Estate Planning & Probate Department

tyeaglin@lewisrice.com

St. Louis, MO / (314) 444-7848

Tim Yeaglin is a trusted estate planning advisor known for his thoughtful counsel and deep experience implementing sophisticated wealth transfer strategies and navigating complex tax matters.

Tim serves as Co-chair of the Firm's Estate Planning & Probate Department. He counsels individuals and families on the development and implementation of sophisticated tax and estate plans. Tim has considerable experience executing wealth transfer techniques, including the use of limited partnerships, limited liability companies, buy-sell and shareholder agreements, intra-family loans, sales to defective grantor trusts, and other gifting strategies. He also advises clients in estate administration and represents them in gift and estate tax audits.

Tim was selected for inclusion in Missouri & Kansas Rising Stars® from 2010 to 2018. He is a former member of the Firm's Recruiting Committee.

Education

- Washington University in St. Louis School of Law (J.D., 2003)
 - Washington University Law Quarterly, executive notes editor
- University of Memphis (B.A., summa cum laude, 2000)
 - English
 - Pi Kappa Alpha

Legal Background

- Summer associate, Lewis Rice LLC (2001, 2002)
- Summer associate, Quarles, Brady, Streich, Lang, LLP (2002)

Professional Affiliations

- American Bar Association
- Bar Association of Metropolitan St. Louis

Services

- Trust & Estates
- Taxation

Admissions

- Missouri Bar
- Florida Bar

Charitable & Civic Involvement

- Board member, Angels' Arms

Firm Committees

- Co-chair, Estate Planning & Probate Department