St. Louis, MO / (314) 444-7796

Tyler is a paralegal in the Firm's Litigation Department who supports the Rails to Trails practice. He assists landowners pursuing compensation when the government converts portions of their property for public trail use. By collaborating closely with attorneys, Tyler helps protect clients' interests and guide claims through the litigation process.

Prior to joining the Firm, Tyler developed substantial litigation experience as a paralegal, working on complex mass tort and personal injury matters involving product liability, environmental contamination, and other injury-related claims.
